

Josh and His Pet Chick

Josh had to check on his pet chick in the pen. The pen was set in back of a shack. The pet chick was a hen and had a tad bit of red on the top.

Josh did dash to the shack and run in the pen. Then Josh did pick up his pet chick to hug. The chick was fed and it did hop and peck. Then Josh did lock the pen back up to let the chick nap. It was a fun job to have a pet chick.
