

First Grade

I start first grade today
and nervous I will be.
What if my teacher is mean?
How stern will she be?

I should just stay in kindergarten,
I'm still just a small girl.
I will go back to my old class
and give round two a whirl.

Really? I have to go?
Okay, I'll be brave as a soldier.
But I promise I won't like it!
Wait! The day is already over?
