This is only a suggested summer reading list. We encourage all students to read daily during the summer. You know your own child best and what his or her interests and abilities are. Guide them to the appropriate literature and make it fun.

We encourage summer reading to be enjoyable for each and every student. If your child does not like to read books, try reading a magazine, or part of the newspaper. Most students enjoy the comic section of the paper.

Another "fun" way to get your child to read is to have them ask another adult what their favorite book was as a child. It is possible the book still exists in a library. Try to find a "quiet" time each day to read. It is usually a good idea if you take this time to read also. Talk to your child about what they read. This connection and communication strengthen their reading and thinking skills.
