

Sentence Reading 1.4

Read each sentence in your head once. Then practice reading out loud. Try to read words in "scoops" - just like we do in class. Mark up patterns like digraphs, bonus letters, and the glued sound "all."

1. I will huff and puff up this big hill.

2. Bill is well, but he has been sick.

3. Did Chet get the red shell?

4. Bess had a big kiss for Dad.

5. This hall is a mess!

6. Mom did not miss the mud at all.

7. Ken fell on the path.

8. Toss the ball to Kim.

9. Will Jill and Russ go to the mall?

10. Can you call the pup for his bath?
